What to Expect

Make plans to attend the Animal Welfare Forum on Saturday, March 2, 2019, hosted by the Indiana Veterinary Medical Association. This one-day, engaging forum will focus on the following critical and important areas:

- Learn to recognize and differentiate non-accidental from accidental injury, criminal forms of neglect and animal sex abuse
- Learn about the criminal justice pathway for cases of animal cruelty and the role of the veterinarian in assisting in these cases
- Learn about Indiana laws concerning animal welfare
- Participate in the Q&A session with the featured speakers and Danielle Barnes, Animal Control Officer, Warrick County

This program is open to animal shelter staff, animal control officers, police, and municipal staff.
